

Join Your Neighbors for the Dedication of Flora Way (formerly Bussey Street)

Saturday, October 26th, 2024
2:00 pm
(rain date: Sunday, October 27th)

On the grounds of the Arnold Arboretum of Harvard University, between the Walter Street gate and the current Bussey Street gate

Local residents and organizations, with the support of the Arboretum and the Boston Parks and Recreation Department, led a community effort to rename Bussey Street for Flora, a Black woman enslaved in this area in the 18th century.

Scan the QR code for more information about Flora, Benjamin Bussey, and this street renaming.
